

February 17, 2017

For immediate release:

Legacy Preparatory Christian Academy Basketball Team Advances in Playoffs

Legacy Preparatory Christian Academy's girls varsity basketball team advanced in the playoffs after their win over Robert M. Beren Academy last night. The 60-43 victory under Coach Audra May secured the 2A TAPPS Bi-District Championship for the team.

"What a blessing to coach such a great group of young ladies. They are dedicated to making themselves better every day, and we feel they are just beginning to tap into their potential," stated Coach May.

Legacy Prep is a University-Model School (UMS) comprised of grades pre-kindergarten through 12th with 400 students. The school prepares students to be successful in college and life by providing a rigorous academic background that is rich in opportunities. Legacy Prep is a Christ-centered school that creates college-worthy, character witnesses for Christ.

The Legacy Lions will play Austin Waldorf School for the TAPPS 2A Area Championship on Tuesday, February 21st. Game time is 6:00 PM at the Austin Waldorf School.

According to Legacy Prep Athletic Director Nash Murray, "It is so exciting to see these young ladies find success this early in their high school playing careers."

If you would like more information on Legacy Preparatory Christian Academy, please visit www.legacypca.org. Upcoming informational meetings for the 2017-2018 school year are scheduled for April 17th and June 7th.