

February 1, 2017

Legacy Preparatory Christian Academy Competes at Science & Technology Private School Science Fair

On Friday, January 27th, 7th and 8th grade Legacy Prep students attended the Science & Technology Private School Science Fair at Lone Star College. Legacy Prep took 35 students competing against 169 others in animal science, social science, microbiology, botany, chemistry, physics, and energy and transportation. Legacy Prep students received 22 awards in first through fourth places and placed first in seven of the nine categories in which projects were entered.

Legacy Prep award winners include:

Behavioral social science (two groups)

- 1st- Ella Mullins
- 1st- Gavin Gerwick
- 2nd- Hassan Carrico
- 3rd- Macey Raines
- 3rd- Kylee Curl
- 4th- Macki Lynn

Microbiology

- 2nd- Abby Monsanto

Botany

- 2nd- Chloe Holliday

Chemistry-

1st - Carson Keyes

2nd- Sean Fortin

3rd- Frankye Granack

4th- Layla Faysal

Computer/ Mechanics

1st- Liv Anderson

Physics

1st- Louis Green

2nd- Luke Henson

3rd- Mason Kolar

3rd- Collin Dyniewski

Energy/ Transportation

1st - Maddie Steed

Animals/Medicine/Health

1st - 8th grade - Elliott Eash

3rd- Brock Belanger

4th- Ryan Robinson

Congratulations to our Legacy Lions for all their hard work.

